
The registered decision uses difference of group medians / max IQR; it need not have the same sign as the paired median.